

Beyond BOW From Field to Table Workshop – February 2, 2019

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources, Becoming an Outdoors-Woman program and The Lodge at Black Pearl are co-sponsoring a Beyond BOW From Field to Table workshop on Saturday, February 2, 2019 (9:00 am - 4:00 pm) at The Lodge at Black Pearl, Madison MD.

Join Larry Hindman of Yellowdog Retrievers, Department of Natural Resources Wildlife and Heritage staff and Vicky Mullaney, owner/chef at The Lodge at Black Pearl and for a fun day afield and in the kitchen! The field portion of this workshop will cover basic waterfowl identification, species information and retriever demonstrations, as well as proper care and cleaning of waterfowl. Participants will then head into the kitchen under the guidance of professional chef Vicky Mullaney to learn tricks of the trade for cooking waterfowl.

Black Pearl Farm and Lodge consists of nearly 860 acres of flooded fields, croplands, marsh and woodlands, neighboring Blackwater National Refuge in Dorchester County on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

Cost: $125.00 – includes workshop instruction, lunch prepared by lodge owner, a copy of The Lodge at Black Pearl Cookbook by Vicky Mullaney, and a cooler bag with some tasty surprises for the road.
